

A vibrant, circular illustration featuring a globe at the center. The globe is divided into continents, each with a unique pattern and populated with various animals and people. Surrounding the globe are twelve stylized figures, each representing a different culture or animal. Starting from the top and moving clockwise, the figures are: a yellow bear, a person in a red hooded cloak riding a red scooter, a grey rabbit wearing a blue hat, a red and white striped rocket ship, a purple elephant, a person in a red and white striped shirt, a green penguin, a person in a blue hat, a green cactus, a person in a red and white striped shirt, a person in a red and white striped shirt, and a person in a red and white striped shirt. The entire illustration is set against a white background.

A las 18:30 h.

Imprescindible confirmar asistencia

924 66 02 16